

HAPPINESS IN HANDS OF KING

Abruzzi Has Love Affair in Fine Shape at This End.

ELIKINS FAMILY WILLING

ROMANTIC RIDE FROM WASHINGTON TO BALTIMORE.

Rome, March 21.—The following explanation of the present situation with regard to the reported engagement of the Duke of Abruzzi and Katherine Elkins, daughter of Senator Elkins of West Virginia, was obtained today from an unimpeachable authority. The Duke of Abruzzi came to Rome in February and dined with King Victor Emmanuel. He did not ask his majesty's consent to an engagement with Miss Elkins. He did, however, obtain leave of absence from the minister of marine and went to America. The king, learning through the newspapers that the duke contemplated an engagement with the daughter of the American senator, sent word that the duke must return to Italy the first of April, the date when his leave expired.

EVERYTHING ALL RIGHT.

Duke Solid So Far as the Elkins Family Is Concerned.

New York, March 21.—The Duke of Abruzzi, cousin of the king of Italy, who is reported to be engaged to marry Miss Katherine Elkins, sailed for Europe today on the steamer Lusitania. Up to the hour of sailing the duke declined to affirm or deny the reported engagement, but his demeanor was regarded by the reporters who gathered at the steamship pier as not that of a man who had failed in an important mission.

The duke was registered as Luigi Sarto. He boarded the steamer early this morning and was accompanied to the dock by an Italian attaché of the legation at Washington and by a secret service man. To the reporters at the dock, he said:

"I am very sorry that I have no interview to give out, but come and see me at 8 o'clock."

"But the ship sails at that hour," said one of the newspaper men.

"Yes, I know it. I stayed up late to escape this. Everything is all right. Miss Elkins' family has refrained from making any public statement, and an erroneous construction has been placed upon their silence."

It is understood that the duke will disembark at Liverpool and hasten to Rome.

AUTO RIDE TO BALTIMORE.

Katie and the Duke Have a Little Outing Together.

Washington, March 21.—An evidence of the extreme precaution taken by the Duke of Abruzzi and his friends here to protect his movements from the curious eyes of the public, it is just learned that his royal highness did actually leave Washington in an automobile and not on a railroad train, as was reported by the station people. Attired in a short coat, a slouch hat and carrying a walking stick, he stepped into an automobile near the Italian embassy in this city and made a rapid run to Baltimore. It is believed here that he was accompanied on this trip by Miss Elkins, but the persistent refusal of the friends of the principals to this romance to furnish the smallest scrap of information to reporters makes it very difficult to establish the fact. It is assumed, however, that the statement made in Baltimore last night was correct, and that the couple did join Senator Elkins in Baltimore, whither he had gone to attend the funeral of the late Senator Whyte, and that the duke took a train from Baltimore and continued on his way to New York, whence he sailed this morning for Europe. It was stated at Mr. Elkins' house today that the senator had not yet returned to Washington.

Are You Deformed or Crippled?

Read What Mrs. Armstrong Has to Say About the Cure of Her Child.

To those who are directly interested in crippled or deformed children or young adults, the following should appeal.

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 10, 1907. The L. C. McLean Sanitarium, St. Louis, Mo.

Gentlemen: We are sending you our little one's name, and so afraid you will forget her, yet we will never forget or cease to be grateful that there is such a place as the McLean Sanitarium.

Our daughter came to you with a spinal disease and deformity, walking with such difficulty and pain. Our book, "Deformities and Paralysis," with references, was sent to her. She is in perfect health, has grown splendidly, wears no braces or appliances of any kind; in fact, we consider her cured.

Thank you for all you have done for us. I am, Yours very truly, MRS. J. B. ARMSTRONG, 1009 Shelby avenue, Nashville, Tenn.

What we have done for this child and hundreds of other crippled and afflicted people we can do for you if given the opportunity.

Write us freely and at once regarding any case of spinal deformity, crooked feet, infantile paralysis, crippled or deformed joints of limbs and we will be pleased to advise you. Our book, "Deformities and Paralysis," with references, is free for the asking. The L. C. McLean Orthopedic Sanitarium, 31st Pine St., St. Louis, Mo.
